1446(b) and the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The time period of thirty days from Polk's receipt of service of the Summons and Complaint expires on July 23, 2009.

5. The above-captioned action is a civil action over which this Court has diversity jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1332, in that:

- a) Plaintiff, ZOLL, is a Massachusetts corporation, with its principal place of business in Chelmsford, Massachusetts. Therefore, for purposes of 28 U.S.C. §1332, Plaintiff, ZOLL, is deemed a citizen of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.
- b) Defendant, Polk, is a citizen of the State of Tennessee, residing at 3106 Belwood Street, Nashville, Tennessee.

7. This action is removable to this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1441(a) in that the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts embraces the location where the state court action is pending (i.e., Middlesex County, Massachusetts).

8. Defendant will give written notice of the filing of this Notice of Removal to Michael L. Rosen and Jamie L. Matthews, attorneys for ZOLL, and shall file copies of said Notice of Removal with the Clerk, Superior Court of Middlesex County, Woburn, Massachusetts.

9. Pursuant to Local Rule 81.1 of this Court, within thirty (30) days, the Defendant will file with the Clerk of this Court certified or attested copies of all records and proceedings in the State Court and a certified or attested copy of all docket entries there.

10. By filing this notice, Defendant Polk does not waive any defenses which may be available to her.

WHEREFORE, Defendant Polk removes the above-captioned action now pending against her in the Superior Court of Middlesex County, to the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts, wherein it shall proceed as an action originally commenced therein.

Introduction

1. Plaintiff ZOLL Medical Corporation ("ZOLL") brings this action against its former employee, Defendant Patti L. Polk, for breach of her non-competition agreement. ZOLL seeks damages for Defendant's conduct, as well as permanent injunctive relief.

Parties

2. Plaintiff ZOLL Medical Corporation is a Massachusetts corporation with a principal place of business in Chelmsford, Massachusetts.

3. Upon information and belief, Defendant Patti Polk is a resident of Nashville, Tennessee.

Jurisdiction and Venue

4. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant Polk under M.G.L. ch. 223A, § 3 as she transacted business in Massachusetts and because Polk consented to jurisdiction in Massachusetts.

5. Venue in this Court is appropriate because Plaintiff's principal place of business is located in Middlesex County.

Facts

6. ZOLL is a global medical technology company engaged in the research, development, manufacturing, sales and marketing of products and services relating to cardiac resuscitation, including pacing, defibrillation, circulation and fluid resuscitation, as well as related software.

7. ZOLL possesses trade secrets and other confidential and proprietary information not known to the public or its competitors. ZOLL takes reasonable and diligent steps to maintain the confidentiality of that information as it is an integral part of its business.

8. ZOLL enjoys the goodwill of its customers which is generated by the high quality of the products and services it provides.

9. Polk was employed by ZOLL as a Territory Manager from July 1999 until her voluntary resignation in October 2005. In October 2006 Polk was again hired by ZOLL as a Hospital Territory Manager. At the time of her re-employment, Polk stated that she would remain with ZOLL for a number of years. In her position, Polk was responsible for the sale of ZOLL defibrillators and other products; developing an annual business plan and creating strategic sales analyses; developing customer account profiles; developing sales forecasts; implementing and maintaining customer sales tools; training customers; and maintaining and tracking demonstration and evaluation inventories in her territory. Central to these responsibilities was developing a knowledge of ZOLL's and its competitors' sales strategies. Polk's sales territory included the entire state of Tennessee with the exception of Memphis.

10. In connection with and in consideration of her re-employment with ZOLL, Polk executed an Agreement Concerning Inventions, Confidentiality, Nonsolicitation and Unfair Competition on October 25, 2006 (the "Agreement"), a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A. In the Agreement, among other things, Polk covenanted, for a period of eighteen months following the termination of her employment at ZOLL, not to undertake any employment or activity that is competitive with ZOLL's services. In addition, Polk covenanted, for a period of two years following her termination, not to solicit business from any current or known prospective customer of ZOLL or to provide or assist with the provision of services to any customer or known prospective customer of ZOLL.

11. The Agreement also requires that Polk neither use nor disclose any confidential information of ZOLL without ZOLL's prior written consent. Polk further agreed to return all ZOLL property immediately upon the termination of her employment with ZOLL.

12. The Agreement states that it shall be construed and governed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. In the Agreement, Polk agreed that she would be subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

13. In her position with ZOLL, Polk had access to confidential information and trade secrets of ZOLL, including detailed technical information about ZOLL's products and product development plans, detailed sales information and forecasts and other sensitive company strategic information.

14. In her position with ZOLL, Polk had relationships with a number of clients and prospective clients which were assets of ZOLL.

15. In late March 2009, Polk informed ZOLL that she was resigning in order to accept employment with Physio-Control, Inc., a division of Medtronic and a direct competitor of ZOLL. ZOLL and Physio-Control compete with each other throughout the United States and globally.

16. Upon information and belief Polk has accepted and commenced employment with Physio-Control.

17. Polk's employment by Physio-Control has caused and will continue to cause irreparable harm to ZOLL's business relationships, goodwill, professional reputation, trade secrets, confidential information and revenues.

COUNT I

BREACH OF CONTRACT

18. ZOLL repeats and realleges the allegations of paragraphs 1 through 17 of the Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

19. At all material times, Polk was and continues to be subject to the non-competition provision of the Agreement. Pursuant to that provision, Polk agreed that for a period of eighteen months following the termination of her employment with ZOLL, she would not, in any capacity, undertake any employment or activity anywhere in the world which is competitive with the services of ZOLL.

20. This provision of the Agreement is reasonable under the circumstances and is necessary to protect the legitimate business interests of ZOLL.

21. Polk's employment by Physio-Control constitutes a breach of the Agreement.

22. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff has suffered and will continue to suffer irreparable harm and monetary damages.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

- A. Award judgment to Plaintiff and against Defendant on Count I of this Complaint;
- B. Award damages to Plaintiff in an amount to be determined by this Court;
- C. Enter an Order permanently enjoining Polk from engaging in any employment or activity that competes with the services of ZOLL, including, without limitation, any employment with Physio-Control, for the balance of the term provided in the Agreement signed by Polk;

D. Award such other and further relief that this Court deems just and proper.

EXHIBIT A

ZOLL MEDICAL CORPORATION
AGREEMENT CONCERNING INVENTIONS, CONFIDENTIALITY,
NONSOLICITATION AND UNFAIR COMPETITION

This AGREEMENT CONCERNING INVENTIONS, NONSOLICITATION AND UNFAIR COMPETITION ("Agreement") is made as of the 25 day of October, 2006 (the "Effective Date"), by and between ZOLL Medical Corporation, including all subsidiaries, successors and assigns ("ZOLL") and Patti Pouk ("Employee").

The parties agree that ZOLL has established and maintains at considerable expense confidential proprietary information related to cardiac resuscitation technology, and that ZOLL has established and maintains at considerable expense its customer relations. The parties also agree that ZOLL has vital business interests in protecting its customer goodwill and in maintaining the confidentiality of its trade secrets and confidential and proprietary information. With these principles in mind, and in consideration of good and valuable consideration, the receipt and adequacy of which is hereby acknowledged, ZOLL and Employee covenant and agree as follows:

1. Definitions. For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

- (a) "Services" means research, development, production, sales, marketing or customer service relating to external cardiac pacing and defibrillation products, EMS data collection and management systems. Also, "Services" means any research, development, production, sales, marketing or customer service relating to any product, commercialized or under development by ZOLL, or by any entity that ZOLL shall acquire.
- (b) "Confidential Information" means information belonging to ZOLL, whether reduced to writing (or in a form from which such information can be obtained, translated, or derived into reasonably usable form), or maintained in Employee's mind or memory, which derives independent economic value from not being readily known to or ascertainable by proper means by others who can obtain economic value from the disclosure or use of such information, including, without limitation, financial information, reports, and forecasts; inventions, improvements and other intellectual property; trade secrets; know-how; designs, processes or formulae; software and related code; market or sales information or plans; customer lists; and business plans, prospects and opportunities (such as possible acquisitions or dispositions of businesses or facilities) which have been discussed or considered by the management of ZOLL. Confidential Information includes the confidential information of others with which ZOLL has a business relationship. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Confidential Information does not include information in the public domain, unless due to breach of Employee's duties under this Agreement.

- (c) "Customer" means any person or entity who (i) purchases products or otherwise receives Services from ZOLL at any time during Employee's employment with ZOLL; or (ii) was solicited in whole or in part, by Employee during Employee's employment with ZOLL for the purpose of receiving Services.
- (d) "Inventions and Developments" means any and all inventions, developments, creative works and useful ideas of any description whatsoever, whether or not patentable. Inventions and Developments include, by way of example and without limitation, discoveries and improvements which consist of or relate to any form of Confidential Information.
- (e) "Company-Related Inventions and Developments" means all Inventions and Developments which either (a) relate at the time of conception or development to the actual or demonstrably anticipated business of ZOLL or to its actual or demonstrably anticipated research and development; (b) result from or are based upon any work performed for ZOLL, whether or not during normal business hours; (c) are developed on ZOLL time; or (d) are developed through the use of ZOLL's Confidential Information, equipment and software, or other facilities or resources.

2. Confidentiality. At all times, Employee will keep in confidence and trust all Confidential Information, if any, and will not use or disclose any such Confidential Information without the prior written consent of ZOLL.

3. Documents, Records, etc. All documents, records, apparatus, equipment and other physical property, whether or not pertaining to Confidential Information, which are furnished to Employee by ZOLL or are produced by Employee in connection with Employee's employment by ZOLL will be and remain the sole property of ZOLL. Employee will return to ZOLL all such materials and property as and when requested by ZOLL. In any event, Employee will return all such materials and property immediately upon termination of Employee's employment for any reason. Employee will not take with him/her any such materials or property or any copies thereof upon such termination without written permission from ZOLL.

4. Ownership of Inventions and Developments. Employee agrees that all Company-Related Inventions and Developments which Employee conceives or develops, in whole or in part, either alone or jointly with others, during the term of Employee's employment with ZOLL will be the sole property of ZOLL. ZOLL will be the sole owner of all patents, copyrights and other proprietary rights in and with respect to such Company-Related Inventions and Developments. To the fullest extent permitted by law, such Company-Related Inventions and Developments will be deemed works made for hire.

Employee hereby transfers and assigns to ZOLL any proprietary rights which Employee may have or acquire in any such Company-Related Inventions and Developments, and Employee waives any moral rights or other special rights which Employee may have or accrue therein. Employee agrees to execute any documents and take any actions that may be required to effect and confirm such transfer and assignment and waiver. The provisions of this Section 4 will apply to all Company-Related Inventions and Developments which are conceived or developed during the term of Employee's employment with ZOLL, whether before or after the date of this Agreement, and whether or not further development or reduction to practice may take place after termination of Employee's employment, for which purpose it will be presumed that any Company-Related Inventions and Developments conceived by Employee which are reduced to practice within one year after termination of Employee's employment were conceived during the term of Employee's employment with ZOLL unless Employee is able to establish a later conception date by clear and convincing evidence. The provisions of this Section 4 will not apply, however, to any Inventions and Developments which may be disclosed in a separate Schedule which has been acknowledged by ZOLL and attached to this Agreement prior to its acceptance by ZOLL, representing Inventions and Developments made by Employee prior to Employee's employment by ZOLL.

5. Disclosure of Inventions and Developments. Employee agrees promptly to disclose to ZOLL, or any persons designated by it, all Company-Related Inventions and Developments which are or may be subject to the provisions of Section 4.

6. Obtaining and Enforcing Proprietary Rights. Employee agrees to assist ZOLL, at ZOLL's request from time to time and at ZOLL's expense, to obtain and enforce patents, copyrights or other proprietary rights with respect to Company-Related Inventions and Developments in any and all countries. Employee will execute all documents reasonably necessary or appropriate for this purpose. This obligation will survive the termination of Employee's employment, provided that ZOLL will compensate Employee at a reasonable rate after such termination for time actually spent by Employee at ZOLL's request on such assistance. In the event that ZOLL is unable for any reason whatsoever to secure Employee's signature to any document reasonably necessary or appropriate for any of the foregoing purposes (including renewals, extensions, continuations, divisions or continuations in part), Employee hereby irrevocably designates and appoints ZOLL and its duly authorized officers and agents as Employee's agents and attorneys-in-fact to act for Employee and on Employee's behalf, but only for the purpose of executing and filing any such document and doing all other lawfully permitted acts to accomplish the foregoing purposes with the same legal force and effect as if executed by Employee.

7. Nonsolicitation of Customers. During Employee's employment with ZOLL, and for two (2) years following the termination of Employee's employment (for whatever reason, whether voluntary or involuntary), Employee will not in any capacity:

- (a) solicit the business or patronage of any current or known prospective Customer regarding Services for any person or entity other than ZOLL,
- (b) divert, entice, or otherwise take away from ZOLL the business or patronage of any Customer, or attempt to do so,
- (c) solicit or induce any Customer to terminate or reduce its relationship with ZOLL,
- (d) provide or assist with the provision of Services to a Customer or known prospective Customer (other than on behalf of ZOLL),
- (e) refer a Customer to another provider of Services; or
- (f) communicate or attempt to communicate with any Customer other than on behalf of ZOLL regarding Services.

8. Unfair Competition. During Employee's employment with ZOLL and continuing for eighteen (18) months following the termination of Employee's employment (for whatever reason, whether voluntary or involuntary), Employee will not, directly or indirectly, in any capacity, undertake any employment or activity anywhere in the world which is competitive with the Services of ZOLL, or that are otherwise directly competitive with the Services.

For purposes of this Agreement, "directly competitive with the Services" shall mean competitive with the commercialization or development activities undertaken or planned (to the extent Employee was aware of such plans) by ZOLL at the time of cessation of Employee's employment with ZOLL.

The foregoing will not prevent Employee from owning up to (1) percent of the outstanding securities of a publicly-held corporation which competes with ZOLL.

9. Nonsolicitation of Employees. During the Term of Employment and for two (2) years thereafter, Employee will not:

- (a) hire or employ, or assist others in hiring or employing any current employee of ZOLL through any enterprise with which he or she is associated, or
- (b) hire or employ, or assist others in hiring or employing any consultant of ZOLL to perform work that competes with the Services provided by ZOLL; or

(c) recruit, solicit or induce (or in any way assist another person or enterprise in recruiting, soliciting or inducing) any employee or consultant of ZOLL to terminate his or her employment or other relationship with ZOLL.

10. Acknowledgments. Employee acknowledges and agrees that the restrictions set forth in Section 2-9 of this Agreement are intended to protect ZOLL's commercial relationships and goodwill (with its customers, prospective customers, vendors, consultants and employees), and are reasonable and appropriate for these purposes. Employee further acknowledges and agrees that this Agreement shall remain in full and force and effect notwithstanding any changes in the Employee's job, title, duties, status or compensation while employed by ZOLL or its successors, assigns or affiliates.

11. Disclosure of Agreement. Employee will disclose the existence and terms of this Agreement to any prospective employer, partner, co-venturer, investor or business lender prior to entering into an employment, partnership or other business relationship with such person or entity.

12. Third-Party Agreements and Rights. Employee represents to ZOLL that Employee's execution of this Agreement will not violate any obligations Employee may have to any other party.

13. Litigation and Regulatory Cooperation. During and after the Term of Employment, Employee shall cooperate fully with ZOLL in the defense or prosecution of any claims or actions now in existence or which may be brought in the future against or on behalf of ZOLL which relate to events or occurrences that transpired during the Term. Employee's full cooperation in connection with such claims or actions shall include, but not be limited to, being available to meet with counsel to prepare for discovery or trial and to act as a witness on behalf of ZOLL at mutually convenient times. During and after the Term, Employee also shall cooperate fully with ZOLL in connection with any investigation or review of any federal, state or local regulatory authority as any such investigation or review relates to events or occurrences that transpired during the Term. ZOLL shall compensate Employee at a reasonable rate for any time spent and reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred after the Term in connection with Employee's performance of obligations pursuant to this Section 13.

14. Injunction. Employee agrees that it would be difficult to measure any damages caused to ZOLL which might result from any breach by Employee of the promises set forth in this Agreement, and that in any event money damages would be an inadequate remedy for any such breach. Accordingly Employee agrees that if Employee breaches, or threatens to breach, any portion of this Agreement, ZOLL shall be entitled, in addition to all other remedies that it may have, to an injunction or other appropriate equitable relief to restrain any such breach without showing or proving any actual damage to ZOLL.

15. Consent to Jurisdiction. The parties hereby consent to the jurisdiction of the Courts for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts. Accordingly, with respect to any such court action, Employee (a) submits to the personal jurisdiction of such courts; (b) consents to service of process; and (c) waives any other requirement (whether imposed by statute, rule of court, or otherwise) with respect to personal jurisdiction or service of process.

16. Integration. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior agreements between the parties with respect to any related subject matter.

17. Assignment; Successors and Assigns, etc. ZOLL may assign its rights under this Agreement without the consent of Employee in the event that ZOLL shall effect a reorganization, consolidate with or merge into any other corporation, partnership, organization or other entity, or transfer any or all of its properties or assets to any other corporation, partnership, organization or other entity. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon ZOLL and Employee, their respective successors, executors, administrators, heirs and permitted assigns.

18. Enforceability/Severability. If any portion or provision of this Agreement is to any extent be declared illegal or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, then the court may amend such portion or provision so as to comply with the law in a manner consistent with the intention of this Agreement, and the remainder of this Agreement, or the application of such illegal or unenforceable portion or provision in circumstances other than those as to which it is so declared illegal or unenforceable, will not be affected thereby, and each portion and provision of the Agreement will be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law. In the event that any provision of this Agreement is determined by any court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable by reason of excessive scope as to geographic, temporal or functional coverage, such provision will be deemed to extend only over the maximum geographic, temporal and functional scope as to which it may be enforceable.

19. Waiver. No waiver of any provision hereof shall be effective unless made in writing and signed by the waiving party. The failure of any party to require the performance of any term or obligation of this Agreement, or the waiver by any party of any breach of this Agreement, shall not prevent any subsequent enforcement of such term or obligation or be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach.

20. Amendment. This Agreement may be amended or modified only by a written instrument signed by Employee and by a duly authorized representative of ZOLL.

21. Governing Law. This is a Massachusetts contract and shall be construed under and be governed in all respects by the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, without giving effect to the conflict of laws principles of such Commonwealth. With respect to any disputes concerning federal law, such disputes shall be determined in accordance with the law as it would be interpreted and applied by the United States Court of Appeals for the First Circuit.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, this Agreement has been executed as a sealed instrument by ZOLL, by its duly authorized officer, and by Employee, as of the Effective Date.
